

Benefit Highlights

Health Data Matrix

This bimonthly business and technology journal is packed with content that addresses the evolving trends and emerging technologies of today's healthcare documentation marketplace as well as legislative advocacy, cutting-edge clinical medicine, and professional practice issues.

Plexus

This bimonthly, member-only publication is designed to deliver professional development content specifically to medical transcriptionists, educators, students, and association leaders. Members will enjoy features and columns dedicated to transcription skill-building, credentialing, leadership development, professional practice, and association management. Quizzes, terminology updates, and dynamic member stories are among the many reasons you'll love this benefit.

Stedman's Products

Members of AHDI receive an extra 20% off most Stedman's products. This discount applies to current year spellcheckers, dictionaries, and so much more! Log in as a member on the AHDI website and start building your reference library!

Vitals

This weekly email newsletter delivers up-to-the-minute information to AHDI members about industry news as well as links to useful articles and upcoming events. Make sure we have your current email address so you don't miss out!

AHDI Product Discounts

All AHDI products are significantly discounted for members. This includes The Book of Style for Medical Transcription, 3rd edition (new!) at a special member price. Check out the AHDI virtual "Store" or call Member Services to learn more.

Professional Practices Network (PPN)

Be part of our dynamic online member community by registering and participating in the AHDI Professional Practice Network. The PPN forum is designed to provide members with a venue to dialogue with each other about industry trends and issues. It is also packed full of frequently asked transcription questions and answers related to everything from credentialing to professional practice to transcription style and terminology.

Position Statements

As an advocacy-focused member association, AHDI works to advance the profession through public discourse and standards-setting initiatives. The association publishes standards, position statements, surveys and documents designed to direct the evolution of the profession and elevate awareness on key issues.

Continuing Education Courses and RMT/CMT Prep Assessment—Oak Horizons

AHDI has partnered with Oak Horizons to offer online continuing education courses in a wide variety of medical specialties as well as RMT and CMT Prep Assessment courses designed to assist potential candidates in preparing for the certification exam. The continuing education courses offer CMTs up to 8 CECs in the core required recertification categories. Members receive a discounted rate for all items. Visit the AHDI website for more information on pricing and the class schedules.

Education Approval Process

AHDI has launched its first-ever Medical Transcription Program Approval Process. AHDI and AHIMA have joined resources in developing a program that will provide dual approval through both associations. Open to all educational programs, the approval process is designed to set a benchmark standard for MT education and promote consistency in the training and job readiness of MTs. AHDI educational members will receive a $300 discount on the application fee. Visit www.ahdionline.org, click on “Professional Development>Training>Education Program Approval” and download the approval manual today.

Credentialing

Members of AHDI receive discounts on the CMT Prep Assessment as well as on the CMT Exam.

Component Associations

AHDI component associations provide a unique and valuable networking opportunity for MTs at the local and state level. Through component association involvement, members can keep each other informed and focused on changes in the profession, skill building, certification, continuing education and professional development. Visit the AHDI website or contact us at 800-982-2182 to find a component near you. Don't see a state or local component in your area? Get information about the Online Association.

Employment Resources—HEALTHeCAREERS

Through HEALTHeCAREERS, AHDI is able to offer “The AHDI Career Connection” on our website. MTs can view jobs solely in their discipline or throughout the healthcare arena. You can even complete a resume and submit it electronically to the positions posted. Employers can place an ad for positions that will be seen by large quantities of MTs. Contact HEALTHeCAREERS at 800-423-1229 for more information.

Advocacy

Who is working to advance the profession and promote the value of medical transcriptionists? AHDI's Legislative Issues Group, Board of Directors, and executive staff work vigilantly throughout the year on advocacy initiatives, including lobbying efforts on Capitol Hill, alliance work with other connected organizations (ASTM, AHIMA and MTIA), and standard setting on behalf of the industry and its MTs.

In addition, members receive the following:

- Vendor Affiliates Program
- Mentorship Program
- Discounts on Events
- Online Membership Directory
- Discounts on Advertising
- Discounted List Rentals for Corporate members
